IMPORTANT INFORMATION

You must obey the provisions of the California Vehicle Code, all traffic regulations in this and other states and remain free from traffic accident responsibility.

As provided in Vehicle Code Section 14252, any of the following violations of your probation will result in a 6-month suspension and extend probation 1 year from violation or accident date:

- Any point count violation.
- Any failure to appear (FTA) in court on a traffic violation.
- Any violation occurring during any suspension.
- Any alcohol/drug related driving incident.
- Any involvement in a responsible traffic collision.

A third violation of probation will result in a one year revocation. Any subsequent traffic violation(s)/accident(s) will result in an additional one year revocation. If your driver record indicates that you have not received any traffic law violations related to the safe operation of a motor vehicle, been involved in traffic collision(s) where you were determined to be at fault or contributed to the accident, or there is no proof of driving for a period of one year, you may request reinstatement of your driving privilege.

You will be required to file proof of financial responsibility for three years as provided in Vehicle Code Section 16430 following any suspension or revocation indicated above.
